The stalactites and stalagmites of the cave, located in semi-crystallized limestone, were formed over 15 thousand years. The cave was named "Damlataş" because of the drops of water that continue to drip from the stalactites. Damlataş Cave, a favorite of local and foreign tourists, is famous for its enchanting beauty as well as its air that is good for asthma patients. A common feature of the restaurants and picnic areas here is the tables thrown into the river. The upper parts of the river are used for rafting purposes.

Transportation is provided by taking Alanya minibuses from the stops on the main street in front of our hotel. Transportation is provided by getting off at the last stop and taking the buses that say Dimçayı.

Located 400 meters above sea level, the canyon is surrounded by karst rocks with an average width of 10-15 meters and a circumference of 150-200 meters. Since its water comes from the rocks of the Taurus Mountains, it is cold and has plenty of oxygen.

The canyon, which was opened in 2008, was built on steel construction with wooden platform walking paths for easy navigation, and some areas were protected with wire for security. The walk, which starts with a slight incline from the entrance of the canyon, becomes more enjoyable with 10-15 degree ramps from time to time.

SIDE ANCIENT CITY

The ancient city of Side is one of the most important settlements in history, founded in the 7th century BC. The ancient city of Side, which later transitioned to the Persian Kingdom, passed to the King of Macedonia when Alexander the Great requested the region.

ASPENDOS ANCIENT THEATER

Aspendos is famous for having the best-preserved Roman Period theater not only in Anatolia but in the entire Mediterranean world. The city was founded on the hill plain near one of the largest rivers of the region, Köprüçay (Ancient Eurymedon). Today, theaters and waterways are mostly visited in Aspendos, which owes its transportation and development with the Mediterranean to the nearby river and therefore the fertile lands around it.

Narrow streets within the walls extend along the wall from the port upwards. Yivli Minaret, Keyhüsrev Madrasa, Karatay Madrasa, İskele Mosque, Tekeli Mahmut Pasha Mosque are just some of the important historical monuments within the city walls.

You can take Antalya buses from the stops on the main street in front of our hotel and reach the Castle by Antalya city buses.

HADRIAN KAPISI

It is one of the best preserved historical buildings in Antalya. The building, which is a Roman work, was built in 130 AD in the name of Roman Emperor Hadrian. Over time, the city walls closed the outer part of the gate and the gate was not used for many years. Perhaps this is one of the reasons why the work has survived until today without being destroyed. The gate was unearthed after the ruins of the city walls were demolished. It is considered the most beautiful gate of Pamphylia. There are three dome-shaped openings at the top.
